Contents

Introduction
Laurent Goetschel

Politics of Peace: Emergence and Critique
1. Origins and State of the Art of Swiss Peace Policy
   Heinz Krummenacher
   13
2. Peacekeeping through Changing Conditions
   Tim Guldimann
   27
3. Rethinking Peace, Peace Research and Peacebuilding
   Laurent Goetschel and Tobias Hagmann
   45

Old and New Roles of States
4. Between Divergence and Convergence:
   The State in Peacebuilding
   Lothar Brock
   61
5. Darfur in the Middle of Crisscrossing Fault Lines that Shape the Sudan: Can Switzerland Help to Promote Peace?
   Günther Baechler
   79
6. Making War, Building States? Notes on the Complex Interplay between Statehood and Conflict in Africa
   Didier Péclard
   95

Civil Society and Business
7. How should Business be involved in Peacebuilding, Conflict Management and Peace Promotion?
   John Bray
   107
8. Re-Thinking War. The Challenge to Civil Society Peacebuilding in a Post-Iraq Context
   Mari Fitzduff
   121
9. Reflecting on Non-state Actors in Peacebuilding. Differences and Similarities between Business Actors and Non-governmental Organisations
   Ulrike Joras
   131
Future of Peace Policy

10. Conflict Prevention and Peacebuilding: The EU “Holistic” Approach and Instruments in Support of a more Peaceful World 20 years from now
    Marc Van Bellinghen 139

11. Future Fields and Instruments
    Thomas Greminger 151

12. Where have all the Flowers gone? Some Reflections, more Questions, and no Single Answer
    Cordula Reimann 159

From Research to Practice

13. How can Science contribute to Politics?
    Barbara Haering 175

    Harald Müller 183

Conclusions: The Challenges Ahead

Anita Müller 201

Abbreviations 207
About the Authors 211
Bibliography 217